Overview

The Illawarra Aboriginal Corporation (IAC) was formed in 1980 for the purpose of achieving excellence in providing advocacy and culturally appropriate services to meet the social, cultural and economic needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in the Illawarra Region.

The IAC is a nationally registered Aboriginal Community Housing Provider ('ACHP') and delivers social and affordable housing and supported housing programs that assist Aboriginal people within the Illawarra and surrounding areas in creating pathways to securing sustainable tenancies.

We aim to strengthen our relationships with key stakeholders including our clients, the local community, Housing NSW, Aboriginal Housing Office and other social housing providers while providing fair, transparent and culturally appropriate housing services for the local Aboriginal community. We will provide support to our clients with their housing needs by linking clients with our other funded programs including our Going Home Staying Home (GSH) program and inform, educate and build the capacity of clients to attain and maintain tenancies. The program will also focus on building capacity as a full-service housing provider and increase our housing stock so as to reduce Aboriginal homelessness.
